

Abdul Malik Mujahid

Abdul Malik Mujahid is an award-winning author, producer and an imam.

He is president of Sound Vision, producer of Adam's World and executive producer of daily Radio Islam at WCEV 1450 AM in Chicago.

Imam Mujahid also serves as Chairman of the Parliament of the World's Religions.

He is founder of Muslim Democrats. He was elected to the Credentials Committee for the Democratic National Convention 2008.

He is active with think tanks in the US. He has served on the Independent Task Force on Civil Liberties and National Security by the Council on Foreign Relations in New York from 2006-2009. He also served as a member of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs' Task Force on The Civic and Political Integration of Muslim Americans, in 2007.

Imam has played a leading role in developing alliances and coalition based on the common agenda. His efforts have brought Universal health coverage for children under 18 in the state of Illinois. He has pioneered Shia Sunni dialogue in the Muslim community in the USA.

As the national coordinator of the Bosnia Task Force, USA, in the '90s, he successfully led efforts in collaboration with the National Organization of Women (NOW) to declare rape as a war crime. Currently he leads Burma Task Force USA which is a coalition of 15 national and regional Muslim organizations to stop genocide in Burma.

He has been interviewed by national and international media extensively including interviews with BBC, PBS, New York Times, MSNBC, NPR, Associated Press, AFP, Telegraph, Chicago Tribune and others

Imam Mujahid has authored more than 400 articles on Islamic living and public policy. He is a blogger at HuffingtonPost. His book on political sociology was the winner of an Outstanding Academic Book of the Year Award by American Library Association in 1990.

Imam Mujahid was selected as one the 500 most influential Muslims in the world in 2011 & 2012.

Note: A more detailed bio can be provided at request fasiha@SoundVision.com