

Islamic Cultural Center of Fresno's 2015 Ramadan Art Contest

The goal of this art contest is to beautifully portray the love and mercy of Islam using art.

There are (2) age categories and (1) winner will be named for each category.

Category 1: Ages 18 and above prize: $1500.00 and a Plaque.

Category 2: Ages 12-17 prize: $500.00 and a Plaque.

Contest Rules:

- Each submission must be on 16x20 to 24x36 paper, canvas, or other material.
- There can be no depictions of nudity, vulgarity, or anything that warrants disrespect of Muslims or any other group of people.
- The theme of this contest is the Prophetic tradition of Holy Prophet Muhammad (s) who said; "Give charity to the poor and needy." This statement must be written or printed on the artwork itself or on a label on the artwork. It must be in this form:
"Give charity to the poor and needy!" -Prophet Muhammad
- Submissions MUST be received by July 12th at:
The Islamic Cultural Center of Fresno 2111 E. Nees Ave. Fresno, CA 93720
Questions may be referred to (559)297-9535 or reza@icfresno.org
- Winners will be announced at our Eid Prayer service on Saturday, July 18th at 8:00AM. Winners do not have to be present to collect prize. Winning art will be labeled and displayed at the Center.
- All submissions become property of the Islamic Cultural Center of Fresno.
- No staff or board member of ICCF or their families may enter.
- Please detach the bottom portion of this form, fill it out, and return along with your submission.

Name _____ Date _____

Phone Number _____ Email _____

Medium Used
